REMAI MODERN & MACKENZIE ART GALLERY

CONNECTED BY

The MacKenzie Art Gallery and Remai Modern have teamed up to offer guided, virtual lessons for classrooms. The interactive experience, which draws on the public collections of both institutions, will highlight Indigenous artists from the region and beyond.

ABOUT THE TOURS

Each online class consists of a 90-minute lesson led by trained gallery guides, who will provide encounters with artworks from both museum's collections. Topics and materials are tied to the Saskatchewan education curriculum. Students will have the opportunity to ask questions, participate in discussions, be creative and gain a deeper understanding of art and artists.

ENGAGE WITH ART

Saskatoon's Remai Modern and Regina's MacKenzie Art Gallery are the largest arts institutions in the province. Both hold significant collections of artworks and strive to make them accessible to Saskatchewan students, regardless of where they live and go to school. The MacKenzie and Remai Modern provide students with experiences that stimulate curiosity, challenge stereotypes, encourage critical thinking and reflection, and contribute to their understanding of the world around them.
